Statement of Significance

Kaposvar Roman Catholic Church located on N.E. 4-19-2-W2. Built in 1906-07 by Brothers of Father Jules Pirot. Hungarian farmers hauled stones from surrounding area. Since 1961 it has only been used for an occasional wedding or a funeral.

Assumption Roman Catholic Rectory next to the Kaposvar R.C. Church. Information not confirmed but is indicated that was built in 1903 by Father Woodcutter. Appears to be in good condition. Has ten rooms, served as a colonization office in the early years.
